

The K-Love radio station is important enough to me and my mental health, that I gladly send them money every month to keep them on the air in the Norfolk, Virginia area. I would hate to see new legislation adopted that would keep me from receiving their positive and encouraging words. Listen to them, you may agree, don't let them become victims of the LPFM changes. Thanks, Glenn Ruley